

*C*ome join us and experience a time where glitz and the glamour of the '20's and 30's intertwined with the mobsters of the Prohibition Era. For all Jay Gatsby's fortune, he came by it via transporting and sales of liquor under the guise of his weekly elaborate parties. Al Capone, on the other hand, while being loathed by the Fed's, was considered a great philanthropist to Chicago's hungry and poor. Both Gatsby and Capone are still remembered to this day by their own 'branding.'

*'G*atsby's' restaurant & bar at Troon blends the glamour and the gangster themes with a nuevo steak & seafood concept that provides weekly specials, beautiful global wines, vintage era cocktails and so much more! From the period era music-to the décor-to the fun cocktails that reminisce in both name and ingredients--enjoy our ambiance, and cuisine paired with outstanding wines while sipping on a "Machine Gun Kelly Manhattan," a "Flapper Cosmo," a vintage "Harvey Wallbanger," or "Bugsy's Bathtub Gin Martini."

*O*ur menu is an amazingly well planned fare refined through the years and highly rated. Executive Chef Jeff Schutt is approaching his 41st year in the entertainment and hospitality industry nationwide. Our exquisite fare is paired with world-class (global) wines. Our steaks are USDA Certified Prime Black Angus, and the wonderfully succulent flavors of our fresh coldwater seafood are beyond compare. Our produce is locally sourced, and baked goods and desserts are from both Scottsdale and Phoenix bakeries.

*E*ntertainment at Gatsby's, like its food and bar, are period concepts with jazz and solo artists featured. Murder Mysteries of the Prohibition Era written by Emmy Award Winning Disney Writer Dev Ross are planned for the future, as are educational events such as Gatsby's 'Women Who Wine' that meet to enjoy and try new and exciting wines from around the world. You'll want to join us for Wacky Wednesday's featuring 'Madness' cocktails, Wine Dinners featuring various vineyards, and 'Boys, Babes & Bourbon' Night, or the 'Scotch & Cigar Social on the Patio!' Stay tuned for new and fun events!

*O*wners Melissa and Jeff weave together their love of business endeavors with flavorful cuisine, entertainment, theme restaurant concepts and interior design. Gatsby's is located in the beautiful 'Troon' area of North Scottsdale. Come and enjoy sunsets and a simple glass of wine and appetizer on our beautiful patio surrounded by the night skies and fire pots—or dinner with family and friends in a fine dining venue serving the best and freshest ingredients in a period era concept--Gatsby's delivers on all levels. We look forward to seeing you soon!

Cheers!
